Shopping

& Events

Wrexham

Combining the new and traditional, Wrexham is now home to a multi-million pound new shopping development, Eagles Meadow, which hosts a variety of the top UK high street names. Wrexham is also the venue for the largest open-air market in North Wales (every Monday).

Chester

Chester is famous for its shopping culture. The historic 'Rows' date back to medieval times and house many small unique shops you won't find anywhere else! In addition to this, you'll be sure to find some great food and drink at one of Chester's trendy Restaurant & Bars.

Cheshire Oaks

With over 140 stores, Cheshire Oaks is the largest Designer Outlet Centre in the UK. As factory outlets, stores offer goods from previous seasons at greatly discounted prices, there's some real finds to be had!

Liverpool

Liverpool was recently crowned European Capital of Culture in 2008, and for good reason. Liverpool's Albert Docks and Cavern Quarter are fantastic places to visit and in addition, 2008 also saw the grand opening of the much anticipated 'Liverpool One' shopping centre, the largest shopping development in Europe at the time.

Eaton Hall Gardens

Eaton Hall is home to The Duke of Westminster and is set within one of the largest private estates in Northern England. Three times a year, Eaton Hall opens its spectacular gardens to the public that are surrounded by Grade I listed buildings. Check with Rossett Hall for dates.

Chester & Bangor-on-Dee Races

Chester & Bangor-on-Dee Races offer a truly unforgettable experience. Whether you're there to enjoy the races or to enjoy the wine, be sure to do it in style.

Bodnant Garden

Llandudno

Llandudno is how seaside towns were meant to be. Cable Cars, Mountain Tramways, Ski Slopes and the longest pier in Wales help you to fall in love with this enchanting place. There are lots to see and do at Llandudno Bay, why not take a trip on the Marine Drive around the Great Orme? Or visit nearby Conwy Castle? Or if you feel like leaving the sights for another day, you could always pop into town for some retail therapy!

Attractions, Activities

Golf

Rossett Hall can obtain a pass to five 18 hole golf clubs in the local area, valid for up to 12 months. Golfing in North Wales is a perfect way to unwind. Book at Rossett Hall.

Chester Zoo

Chester Zoo is the UK's Number 1 zoo, a fantastic day out, it's not surprising it attracts more than one million visitors every year. The zoo holds over 7000 animals and 400 different species, including some of the most endangered species on the planet. Reduced price tickets are available from Rossett Hall.

Llangollen Railway

The Llangollen Railway is a preserved steam railway situated within the stunning Dee valley. The train runs for 7½ miles along the River Dee from Llangollen to Carrog through some of the most beautiful scenery in the UK.

Blue Planet Aquarium

The Blue Planet Aquarium is an adventure for all, home to a huge variety of species including Stingrays, Lemon Sharks, Canadian Otters, poisonous Dart Frogs and thousands of tropical fish. Do you dare take a shark dive?

The Local Experience

Rossett

Our Village is home to buildings that date back as far as the 15th Century. The village has some lovely, picturesque walks and sights such as the Rossett Mill (above, and painted by the famous artist, Turner), The River Alyn, and Trevalyn Hall.

Marford

One of Marford's most interesting features are the quaint looking gothic cottages, in particular, the crosses. Marford was once so haunted by the ghost of Lady Margaret Blackbourne that the cottages had crucifixes installed to scare her off. The success of this was debated, as Lady Blackbourne's ghost is still sometimes seen.

The River Dee, Chester

The Dee encircles South Chester and boasts an attractive riverside featuring boat trips, rowing boats, pedalos and canoes. A bevy of Swans and Cygnets can normally be found on the River and the Grosvenor Bridge (which overlooks) was opened in 1833 by Princess Victoria, 4 years before she became Queen of England.

Erddig

Erddig Hall is a National Trust property, built in 1684 for Joshua Edisbury, the High Sheriff of Denbighshire. Erddig Hall was recently voted by the Radio Times as 'Britain's second finest stately home'. A tour of the mansion house includes the joiners shop, the smithy and stables, but most go simply to wander the beautiful gardens. Erddig Hall is also a regular on the BBC's Antique Roadshow programme.

Sights

Chirk

Chirk is a quiet town which dates back to the 12th Century. Its main attraction is the magnificent Chirk Castle, but the surrounding Ceiriog Valley, aqueducts and canals are also of much interest to visitors (including a visitor last year going by the name of Harrison Ford!)

Chester Walls

See Chester in its true glory by taking a stroll along its City Walls. Founded by the Romans in 79AD, Chester was built as a fortress during the Roman expansion northwards and later used as protection from raiders from the Irish Sea. Much of the Walls remains intact and leads past other must-see attractions such as the Roman Amphitheatre & Chester Cathedral.

Clwydian Range

Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty

The Clwydian Range is a 35km series of hills in North Wales, the highest point being the popular Moel Famau (554 metres/1,818 ft), which on a clear day boasts views of Liverpool, Manchester, the Blackpool Tower and even the Isle of Man! Great for walking, the Clwydian Range is regarded as one of Britain's most treasured landscapes as it was named an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB).

& Scenery

Pontcysyllte Aqueduct

World Heritage Site

Set in the beautiful North Wales countryside. Pontcysyllte Aqueduct is walkable and carries the Llangollen canal over the valley of the River Dee. The aqueduct is a Grade 1 listed building and was recently inscribed on the World Heritage list in 2009, alongside such landmarks as the Taj Mahal, The Great Wall of China and Stonehenge.

The Castles

North Wales boasts some of the finest Castles Great Britain has to offer. Chirk, Conwy, Dolwyddelan, Dolbadarn, Beaumaris and Caernarfon are just some of the towns that call home to these stunning fortresses and, set in the beautiful Welsh countryside, are a great day out for everyone.

Snowdonia National Park

Snowdonia National Park is a region of North Wales that spans over 800 square miles and is home to the largest mountain in England and Wales, Mount Snowdon. For those who like the sites but don't wish to walk, the Snowdon Mountain Railway runs a truly breathtaking service, daily from Llanberis to the summit. The summit of Mt Snowdon also boasts a brand new £8m visitor centre, Hafod Eryri.
